

PAPER-FIRST TRAVEL PASSPORT

Route 20 Trip Passport

Mark the states and chapters you complete, record the towns that mattered, and leave enough blank space for the trip to become your own story.

This is a personal travel keepsake, not an official government or highway document. It does not certify route completion, access, road status, park entry, or any official milestone.

TRIP IDENTITY

Traveler / group

Vehicle

Trip dates

ROUTE SHAPE

Start

Finish

Direction

Keep the live guide nearby

Scan for current state planners, trip companions, and Route 20 source pages.

BEFORE THE FIRST MILE

TRIP IDENTITY

Define what "done" means for this trip

My trip is...

- ☐ One Route 20 town-to-town chapter
- ☐ One state
- ☐ Several neighboring states
- ☐ A coast-to-coast attempt
- ☐ A return trip to fill gaps

My completion rule

Write the rule you will use. It can be as simple as "drive the chapter I planned safely" rather than chasing every possible mile or stop.

12-state chapter board

Mark only what you actually completed.

- ☐ Oregon
- ☐ Idaho
- ☐ Montana
- ☐ Wyoming

- ☐ Nebraska
- ☐ Iowa
- ☐ Illinois
- ☐ Indiana

- ☐ Ohio
- ☐ Pennsylvania
- ☐ New York
- ☐ Massachusetts

The Yellowstone transition needs special attention in any whole-route story. Do not use this passport as proof of a continuous ordinary US 20 drive through the park. Record the routing you actually used and verify current park access separately.

Most important reason for this trip

One thing I refuse to rush

Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming

OR - OREGON

Pacific finish or launch

Date / chapter driven

Town or landscape I remember

Favorite moment

ID - IDAHO

Long interior crossing

Date / chapter driven

Best reset town

Favorite moment

MT - MONTANA

West Yellowstone connector

Date / routing used

Park-side decision

What made this handoff work

WY - WYOMING

Bighorn Basin and Yellowstone approach

Date / chapter driven

Best anchor

Favorite moment

Western completion is allowed to be conservative. Weather, wildfire smoke, park access, long distances, and driver energy can change what a successful day looks like.

Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana

NE - NEBRASKA

Plains and Sandhills

Date / chapter driven

Best service or overnight reset

Landscape I want to remember

IA - IOWA

Missouri to Mississippi

Date / chapter driven

Best town

Favorite moment

IL - ILLINOIS

Galena, Freeport, Rockford, Chicago side

Date / chapter driven

Heritage stop

Favorite moment

IN - INDIANA

Dunes gateway to northeast Indiana

Date / chapter driven

Lakefront / city anchor

Favorite moment

The heartland chapter is not only a mileage bridge. Record the small main streets, river handoffs, prairie weather, museum stops, and meals that made the drive feel regional.

Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Massachusetts

OH - OHIO

Western Reserve and Lake Erie

Date / chapter driven

Best anchor

Favorite moment

PA - PENNSYLVANIA

Compact Erie connector

Date / chapter driven

Lake / harbor / grape-country choice

Favorite moment

NY - NEW YORK

Lake towns, Finger Lakes, central corridor

Date / chapter driven

Best town or lake chapter

Favorite moment

MA - MASSACHUSETTS

Berkshires to Kenmore Square

Date / chapter driven

Western or urban highlight

Favorite moment

A Boston finish can be the achievement by itself. Record the endpoint without forcing a second city itinerary into the same travel day.

TRIP MILESTONES

MEMORY PAGE

The moments that made the road yours

Pacific or Atlantic endpoint

Date / place / what it felt like

Yellowstone-side handoff

Routing used / what changed

Best small-town main street

Best unexpected stop

Hardest driving day

What I would change next time

Best easy day

Why it worked

FAVORITES

Keep the details that a map cannot

Favorite town

Why

Favorite landscape

Why

Favorite meal or food stop

What I ordered

Favorite museum / history stop

What stayed with me

Best roadside surprise

Best overnight base

One story I do not want to forget

FINAL STAMP

REVISION: AUGUST 2026

What this Route 20 trip became

I am proud that we...

Next time I would...

My next Route 20 chapter

Leave something for later on purpose.

State / region

Season / year

Reason to return

Person I want to bring

Keep this passport as a memory record. For any future drive, return to the live Route20RoadTrip guide and verify current conditions, closures, access, lodging, hours, and route details again.

Continue with the live planning library

Use the current state planners and trip companions when the next chapter becomes real.

Revision: August 2026.